do volunteer in local community

Honestly, I think students should do some volunteer work in the local community. First off, this can strengthen the relationship between the school and the town. This is because by helping out in the local community, like picking up trash in the park, the residents will think highly of the students and the university. So the university can build a very good image which can help them to attract donation. Besides, students should do volunteer work because this can help them to discover a love of service. This is because, after helping out, the local residents will really appreciate the students like sending students some thank you cards. And this can inspire the students to a lifetime of volunteer work in the future. So because of these two reasons, students should do volunteer in the local community.

Parents should be friends with their children

Well, I believe that parents should be friends with their kids. First off, this can actually boost their kids personality development. Well, this is because friendly parents can actually make kids feel at ease. So they're comfortable with who they are and they can just be themselves. As a result, they will become more confident so they can better take on the challenges in life. Besides, I think friendly parents can also encourage open discussions between them and their kids. Well, this is because with friendly parents, kids are more likely to voice out what they truly think. Like during an argument, they will just tell parents how they feel so this can help them to explore each other's perspectives. Therefore, I think parents should be friendly with their kids.

offer jobs with a large, well-established company with a good reputation

Honestly, I would like to choose to work for a large company. First off, I think I can have better job security. Well, this is because, you know, the large companies, they are unlikely to fail since they have a large amount of funding available to support their operations. As a result, you know, my job will be very safe and I can actually work here as long as I want to. Besides, I would like to work for a large company because they can offer me a lot of perks. This is because they often offer their employees very good health insurance. And on top of that, they may also have partnerships with other companies. So I can get discounts maybe on cell phones, on hotels or even on traveling. So because of these two reasons, I would like to work for a large company.

I prefer watching the news to reading the news because watching the news can provide me with more details about what had happened. Usually in the video, I can see the scene, see the people and even hear their words. It seems as if I am in the scene. Besides, watching the news can get more objective information. Since the news articles in the newspaper should be edited or censored, some important information may be omitted.

look for information from the Internet

I prefer to use Internet to look for information for the following two reasons. First, it's very fast to find the information from Internet. Since now we have many search engines such as Google and Bing, we just need to input key words and the results will be listed on the screen. From the results, we can always find the information related to the research project. Second, Internet has way more information than do printed materials. Nearly all printed materials now have e-version online. With many scientific databases, we can always find what we need by title, author or even content. So, when we are doing research project, Internet is more convenient than printed materials.
